

Online Course in Fiber to Fashion

- Introduction - Fibers in textile industry and its broad classification to better understand the fiber properties.
- Discussion on Cotton and linen- the difference in the characteristics and properties.
- Discussion on wool and silk - how they are procured and the difference in the characteristics and properties.
- Weaving - the process of converting the raw fiber to fabric. Talking about yarn, thread and the weaving process.
- A glossary of important fabric in the fashion industry and unique fabrics from across the world.

Course Duration: 10hrs

Requirements: Notepad and Pencil

Assignments to be completed as and when given.